Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Cheryl Theisz has been selected as South Dakota's representative in the U S WEST Outstanding Teacher Program; and,

WHEREAS, Cheryl Theisz has exhibited a classroom philosophy reflecting her belief of recognizing every child's potential, motivating him or her to learn and believe in themselves, and striving to assist each child in reaching their maximum potential; and,

WHEREAS, Cheryl Theisz has reached beyond the classroom walls to stimulate student participation and creative thinking by integrating the classroom with the outside community and world through utilization of resources and hands-on activities; and,

WHEREAS, Cheryl has proven her commitment to students by the individual concern she has shown for each student by allowing them the time, appropriate environment and freedom to experiment, explore and create; and,

WHEREAS, Cheryl is held in high regard by her fellow teachers, continually sharing her classroom ideas with them; and,

WHEREAS, Cheryl Theisz has created learning centers for her students in which subjects are brought to life by incorporating arts activities, cross cultural education, as well as her enormous variety of previous experiences and education; and,

WHEREAS, Cheryl has assured a brighter future for South Dakota and this nation through her commitment to the education of our youth:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 23, 1990, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
